

WATERMAN NEWS

Printed Weekly from Waterman Road

PORCHFEST GOES ON DESPITE RAIN

Despite the rainy weather, Roslindale Porchfest still happened on Waterman Road. At 51 Waterman people braved the rain to see Orange Squeeze perform hits like I Can See Clearly Now and Blue Skies. Later at 43 Waterman, Abby and Joe Kelling performed folk music and host Mo Pepin performed her original songs for an enthusiastic crowd. People got together to enjoy fun, music and tasty treats made by neighbor Noemi Zakarian. Tarps were put up to protect people and instruments from rain. A big thank you to Mo Pepin, and Stacey Lantz for hosting Porchfest at their houses!

TODAY'S PUZZLE

Word Box Puzzle. Use the letters in the box to make words using the hints provided.

G	O
L	A
R	T

- To brag about something (5 letters)
- An achievement you are working towards (4 letters)
- Greatest Of All Time acronym (4 letters)
- Small rodent (3 letters)
- Breakfast food (3 letters)

EDITOR'S NOTE

A reminder that Dumpling Festival will be held in Adams Park this Saturday, September 28 from 3pm -6pm.

Joseph Zyber is the editor of Waterman News. He is 10-years-old. Some of his hobbies are playing baseball, writing, and reading stories.

If you have story ideas, need the puzzle answer, would like to submit your pet for the pet spotlight or if you wish to unsubscribe contact josephzyber31@gmail.com